

CityLIFTSM down payment assistance program

Pulling enough money together for a down payment is often a sticking point for aspiring home buyers

Help may be at hand

For a limited time, if eligible, you may receive $20,000 for down payment assistance for the purchase of a primary, owner-occupied residence in certain cities in the Oakland area. Go to www.wellsfargo.com/citylift for more information. This amount you receive from the program is fully forgivable after you live in the home for five years.

Who may qualify?

The program is available if you are approved for home financing and your household income is equal to or less than 120% of the area median income. Whether this is your first home or you are ready to buy again, there are a number of homebuyer education requirements that must be completed prior to the home purchase.

1. This down payment assistance program is available for households earning 120% or less of the area's median income, adjusted for household size, although specific loan products have lower income limits. CityLIFT funds cannot be used to purchase bank-owned properties being managed by Wells Fargo Premier Asset Services.

Although Wells Fargo is the sponsor of the CityLIFT program, you may seek financing for the remaining balance of the home purchase from any qualified lender who accepts the CityLIFTSM down payment assistance program.

The CityLIFTSM program is designed to provide down payment assistance and homebuyer education programs in areas most impacted by the financial crisis. The program was developed in response to the 2012 settlement with the Civil Rights Division of the U.S. Department of Justice, and is a collaborative program of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. and NeighborWorks America, an independent nonprofit organization.
